Program Rationale: (Why is this program important?)
Arts are important for children to express themselves. To give them an outlet but, also a way to connect what they are learning in their other classes
Program Impact: (How will the teachers and students benefit from this project?)
Art impacts a child for a lifetime. Art helps children to learn problem solve and see the world in different ways.
Program Evaluation Method: (How will you measure teacher and student success?)
Our success with this program, will be measured by our students mastering skill (i.e. Drawing) that they said when starting the class they could not do.
